HISTORY – TOURISM – NATURE

This beautiful part of the Central Bohemia region settled from ancient times can be discovered south-east of the capital of the Czech Republic - Prague. This area served to the central Bohemia as an agricultural background, defense against the enemy but also as a place to rest already in the past.

The countryside composed of high hills and deep valleys is dominated by the Blaník mountain. This region was then named after the Sázava river flowing through as a blue thread.

With a boat you can set out for a weekly holiday or for instance only for a weekend trip. And if you are not the owner of a boat you can borrow it even with complete equipment and an advice how to move on the water.

If not attracted by going down the river you can bike the Posázaví area. You will find here many marked bicycle routes that will take you round the sight-seeing and natural interests. And after you have exercised you will surely find a place to rest and have a good meal.

For those who want to enjoy the beauties of the nature and to enjoy every detail, the best solution is to set out on foot through the region. Also in this case you can take advantage of the care offered by the Posázaví area. The nature trails will be informing you on the things you would otherwise overlook or would not find.

The best view of the countryside is said to be from the saddle of a horse. The Posázaví region is the place with the biggest concentration of riding-halls, farms and horses breedings at the Czech Republic. If you like a countryside passing under you, you can fly over the Posázaví region by plane or a balloon. The view of the Sázava river, castles and chateaus is really an unforgettable experience.

Come to look and spend a time of test in the Posázaví area.

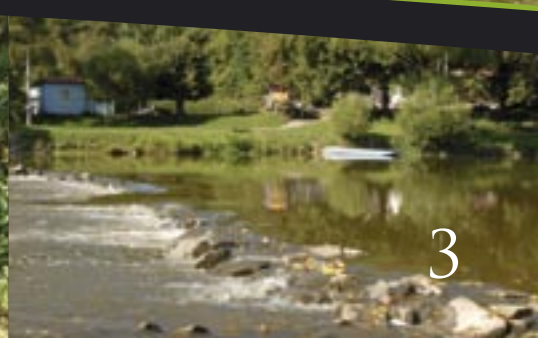

We are looking forward to you.

The castle of Konopiště was founded at the end of the 13th century, probably by the bishop Tobias of Benešov. It was built as a Gothic fortress copying the design of French castles. First building alterations were ordered by George of Šternberk at the end of the 15th century, and later by Hodějovští of Hodějov in the 17th century. In the 18th century, Vrtbové of Vrtba converted the castle into a Baroque palace. Francis Ferdinand d'Este, who bought it in 1887, had it rebuilt into a grand emperor's residence.

Since 1996 the premises of the former artillery quarters between Krhanice and Lešany u Týnce nad Sázavou have hosted the exhibition of the Military Technical Museum of the Prague Military History Institute.

The collections currently contain more than 450 historic tanks, cannons, motorcycles, armoured military trucks and cars dating from 1890 up to the present, which can be seen in seven halls, under six shelters as well as in the open air. The Museum ranks among the leading European institutions of its kind due to both quantity and quality of its collections featuring many a world-unique object. Especially the collection of Czechoslovak military vehicles dating from 1918 to 1939 and the Škoda system cannons collection have no parallel.

In particular, the collection of Czechoslovakian military vehicles from the period of 1918 - 1939 and the set of Škoda – system cannons are unique. British museums, setting the pace to the current development in this area of museology, have been the pattern since the very beginning.

As every year, also in 2009 there will be an opening ceremony of the museum season on Saturday, May 23. On this day, they are going to be, as traditionally, a demonstration of anti-aircraft troops actions. At the same time, two new expositions are going to be opened in the museum – one – an outside one focused on railway troops and the second internal one, i.e. an exhibition hall. Středočeský kraj

Týnec nad Sázavou has a very long history. Its name itself indicates that at the place where the Týnec Castle is located these days – on a high cliff above the river – there was a fortified settlement in the ancient times, the so-called Týnec. There is a probable connection between the settlement and an old trade route leading from southern Bohemia through the town of Sázava and along the Kostelec Castle to Prague. Adjacent to a stone rotunda, a religious building, was a secular residential structure, uncovered during a research in 1969. It was just a stilted structure and dated back to the 11th century. A stone Romanesque palace was built on its place at the turn of the 13th century, with a prism defence tower next to the rotunda constructed later on. The palace currently houses the Municipal Museum with an exhibition of earthenware for which Týnec was famous in the period from 1791 to 1866. There is also an exhibition on the history of the town of Týnec, a concert hall and an exhibition hall in the building. Nearby stands a Gothic tower of the Týnec Castle. It's used as the lookout with the view into the Posázaví region and there is the respected European summer domicile of the big bat. The Romanesque rotunda, used as the house of prayer by the Czechoslovak Hussite Church, it is also a part of Municipal Museum sightseeing.

History of earthenware from Týnec. The founder of the manufacture for the fine earthenware was an owner of Konopiště and Týnec the count František Josef z Vrtby. He appropriated to this purpose financial means together with neglected and abandoned castle district including the Romanesque rotunda. There were produced not only utility articles, but also decorative articles. The local earthenware had reached a European repute and concerning the art the high artistic value. Thanks to the production enlargement the count Vrtba had had to build a new large factory building in 1812 – present Společenské centrum TÝNEC (Community Centre TÝNEC).

ČESKÝ ŠTERNBERK CASTLE

When touring the Sázava riverside, do not omit to visit the Český Šternberk castle, for you will be rewarded with a view of the gothic castle majestically spanning over the Sázava river. During the excursion you will be allowed to take a glimpse of its more than seven-hundred year history, connected mainly with the Sternberg family.

The castle was founded around year 1241 by Zdeslav of Sternberg. The name was derived from the coat-of-arms, a golden octal star, and germanised according to contemporary custom. The last greater adaptations were made in the early Baroque period.

The tour takes you through fifteen rooms richly furnished with stylish furniture and a collection of family portraits, porcelain, weapons, hunting trophy's, silver miniatures etc. Among the most famous pieces exhibited is doubtless a collection of graphic prints from the time of the Thirty-years war.

The south forward rampart of the Český Šternberk castle, so called "dungeon," is a part of a sophisticated fortification system built by the provincial supreme judge Petr Holický of Sternberg at the turn of the 15th and the 16th century and finished by his son John. This rampart is one of the best preserved objects of the lately Gothic fortification architecture, within the genesis of the Middle-European fortification structures of the 15th century, exceeding by its significance the framework of Bohemia.

KRAJ BLANICKÝCH RYTÍŘŮ

The region of the Blaník Knights called after the Blaník Hill is situated in the heart of the Posázaví. The legend says that an army under the command of St. Wenceslas, the patron of the Czech land, sleeps inside the mountain and waits to go up to help the Czech nation at the worst of times. Up to now the army has not intervened yet, though nearly did several times. Occasionally a knight comes out of the mountain to check up how the people of Bohemia manage.

The region of Blaník knights is the place of natural beauties and rich history. In its heart there is a forested twin hill of Velký (Big) and Malý (Small) Blaník that gave its name to the region.

LOOKOUT TOWER ON VELKÝ BLANÍK

The wooden covered tower of 29,5 m height is situated in the altitude of 638 m on top of the Velký Blaník hill. It was built in 1939 – 1941 from the initiative of the Club of Czech Tourists.

Also a big amount of small sacral structures, field chapels, crosses and bell towers located in the countryside has a big impact on the romantic appearance of the Podblanicko area.

CHATEAU LOUNOVICE POD BLANÍKEM

The first written reference to the site dates back to 1149 and mentions a convent of the Premonstratensians, founded in the so-called Moon Valley. The Lounovice convent was ruined in 1420 by the Tabor forces that then dominated the whole region. The museum displays findings of the archaeological research of the convent, installed in the chateau by the National Museum in 1981. During a reconstruction in 1982, a band of sgraffito was uncovered, depicting an interesting view of the biblical theme of The Flood. Above the bossage of the entry portal there is the coat of arms of the archbishops as a reminder of the times when the chateau was in their possession. The collections also include a display of "The Oldest History of Lounovice pod Blaníkem" and a display dedicated to apiculture. Lounovice pod Blaníkem is also the birthplace of the music composer Jan Dismas Zelenka (1679 – 1745).

There is no doubt that the railway influenced importantly the whole region of the Sázava Basin, mainly as concerns its economy. It is even very hard to imagine what would the life in here look like if the railway was not here. There are still many places along the Sázava River that are inaccessible otherwise than by train. Building of the Posázavský Pacifik railway was initiated towards the end of the 19th century. Except for its short segment from Prague-Vršovice to Prague-Modřany, was the whole of the railway from Modřany, through Davle, along the Sázava River up to Světlá nad Sázavou built at the turn of the 19th and 20th century.

POSÁZAVSKÝ PACIFIK

In the first railway guide from 1897, the Posázavský Pacifik was denoted number 78 and bore a note "opens on the day of announcement". The note concerned mainly the segment from Skochovice to Jílové due to the delays in the definite trajectory of the rail, which was finally put into operation on 1st May 1900. The railway from Čerčany to Davle and Prague - Vršovice enabled access to the formerly unknown natural beauties of the Sázava lower reach. Thanks to its romantic character and spirited design, the railway is rightly acknowledged one of the prettiest in the Czech Republic. In the period after the World War I, it was a destination of excursions of polytechnic universities every year. The railway has brought access to many places of interest in the region to the tourists.

This romantic railway still leads through the beautiful countryside along the Sázava River, thus enabling to the visitors of the region to wander from a historical monument to the museum, from a village to the town, from a campsite to the guest house and back home. Thanks to the group of enthusiasts, it is possible to enjoy a trip on the historical train with a steam engine or on a historical motor train, very popular for school excursions. The regular "steam" transport lines of the Czech Railways always take the travelers to some interesting cultural event. The historical motor train is available for business events as a place for workshops or company presentation.

THE VILLAGE OF KONDRAC

is located in the protected landscape in vicinity of the mysterious Blaník Mountain. The St. Bartholomew Church (kostel Sv. Bartoloměje) dating from 1200 is the dominant of the triangle village square. The originally Romanesque building was gradually adapted, with the cylindrical towers with two double windows forming a unique and precious element.

TRACKING THE BLANÍK KNIGHTS ON BIKE AND ON FOOT

The project has enabled establishment of the quality background for the development of tourism in the village and its integration to the whole tourist area called “the region of Blaník knights”. The building of former municipal office was adapted to the tourist guesthouse, including the non-barrier room with private kitchenette and bathroom for handicapped visitors.

On the first floor of the building, there are four four-bed rooms with private bathroom, a common kitchen and a common room with television. There is also a computer with internet link and the bikes rental with eight fully equipped tracking bicycles of different sizes. The project also initiated building of a cycling route called “Tracking the Blaník knights” and an instructive tourist trail, both furnished with information materials. The visitors may also visit the new minigolf course. The village offers a downhill skiing facility and several cross-country skiing tracks for winter period.

The Sázava river flows into the Central Bohemia and ends up at Davle as it flows into the Vltava river. The south-eastern part of the Central Bohemia region – Posázaví – offers a lot of possibilities for rest and getting to know nature and history. The nature trails are one of them. They can be taken as a separate program or used as an additional walk when visiting other sights or tourism goals.

THE NATURE TRAIL „FOLLOWING THE TRACES OF THE BATTLE OF JANKOV“

Will acquaint you with a great battle in European history, in which, on March 6th 1645, the imperial armies of general Hatzfeld and Götz met with the Swedish army of general Torstensson. The battle's outcome was the defeat of the imperial armies and today it is considered the bloodiest battle of the Thirty-years war on our territory. The trail ends at the probable location of general Hatzfeld's capitulation. The nature trail has 3 rest stops and is 1675 meters (approx. 1 mile) long.

INSTRUCTIVE PATH „AROUND VOTICE FOR COGNITION“

Set off with us for the tour called “Around Votice for Cognition”. The path begins and ends in the square of Votice and is 8 km long. The tour includes nine stops with commentary acquainting the visitors with flora and fauna of the neighbourhoods, taking you to the St. Adalbert Chapel, informing you why is this area called the Czech Siberia, acquainting you with famous people whom the local countryside charmed, telling you the story of the gallows hill, of the majestic Votice maple-tree and other attractions of the region.

THE TRAIL OF KNIGHT JAN KRYŠTOF ŠIC

The nature trail has 10 resting points. It leads from Divišov across the Vrchla hill, Měchnov village, by the Brtníčák pond, Český Šternberk castle to the village common of Český Šternberk or the other way round... You will find out a lot about game management, Jewish religion, nature around Divišov, agriculture or the castle Český Šternberk. The overall length of the trail is less than 7 kilometres (4,3 miles) and you can walk the whole way in about 2 or 3 hours. Throughout the trail you will be accompanied by the figure of knight Jan Kryštof Šic of Měchnov. This knight lived in the Divišov region assumedly in the first half of the 17th century.

NATURAL TRAILS IN THE POSÁZAVÍ AREA

Excerpts from his diary will help you imagine what times long past were like and learn from history the way the school children understood it.

INSTRUCTIVE TRAIL BUCHOV – NESPERY

You are welcome to come for a nice walk through the countryside on the foothill of Blaník Mountain, along the 1,5 km long instructive tourist trail from Nespery to the vicinity of Buchov seclusion. You will get acquainted with local natural conditions and with fauna and flora typical for different locations of the area. And if you enjoy this place, you can stay for several days in the rustic cottage some 200 years old, whose owners offer private lodging.

NATURE TRAIL WITH A KNIGHT TO THE BLANÍK MOUNTAIN

The nature trail begins at the parking place at the foot of Velký Blaník over Louňovice pod Blaníkem, leading across the Velký Blaník mountain top to the parking place in Kondrace along the red tourism mark. The trail is long 4 km and there are 14 educational stops and 17 playful stops for children. Parking both cars and buses is possible on both ends of the trail, this over the villages of Kandrac and Louňovice pod Blaníkem. On the Velký Blaník mountain top there is a view tower with the possibility of refreshment, there are resting places built on the trail. There is a steep ascending before the Velký Blaník mountain top. Therefore we recommend to the less fit visitors to choose a little bit longer route along the wood path. The trail is not suitable for prams, due to the same reasons. For prams we recommend to use also the wood path.

The Blaník Knight is the patron and as well the guide along the entire route. He acquaints with the nature of Velký Blaník and its surroundings, the history of its settlement or the Blaník Knights reputations. You can see a copy of the National Theatre foundation stone coming from Blaník or the Knight sculpture. Also an outdoor geologic exposition of the Podblanicko area is a part of the trail where 21 big samples of rocks are exhibited.

Heroutice Farm

Visiting our stud will certainly inflict you with euphoria as soon as you meet the herd of these noble animals. You will feel the grandeur of this breed designed exclusively for the ceremonial purposes of the emperor's court in the past and still popular at royal courts all over Europe. In winter, you may try skijoring (horse-drawn skiing) or a ride in the sledge ringing with jingle bells throughout the white countryside. Children are always welcomed in Benice where they can experience a donkey or a pony ride. In summer, we organize children camps where they learn how to ride.

The unique three-winged estate built in 1750 offers various opportunities for your rest and refreshments: accommodation in the attic, stylish pub or outdoor barbecue. The farm offers a restaurant in the antique grange room which can accommodate up to 200 sitting guests, a Baroque house-place with the capacity of 30 persons, the court and vast surrounding lands as the ideal place to hold various social events, e.g. parties, presentations, garden parties, training, team-building events, weddings including the ceremony, weekend stays, etc.

CHATEAUS IN THE POSÁZAVÍ AREA

CHATEAU VRCHOTOVY JANOVICE

This originally stone stronghold of the noblemen of Janovice, protected by a moat, was gradually converted into a manor house in the Renaissance style, becoming the seat of the Votice branch of the counts of Vrtba in the 17th and 18th centuries. The last major reconstruction occurred in the mid 19th century, when the chateau received its current, neo-gothic look.

The chateau has belonged to the National Museum for over 40 years. It offers several permanent displays: "Society in 19th Century Bohemia", presenting life in Bohemia during this period; "Rilke, Kraus and Vrchotovy Janovice", acquainting visitors with the family of the last private owners of the estate, and in particular with the person of Sidonie Nadherná; and the "Czech Bellfoundry" display, guiding visitors through the history of bell making in the Czech lands. A visit to the estate may be concluded in the ancient landscaped park around the chateau.
